SILC hosts Public Forums

The State Independent Living Council is in the midst of holding public forums to gather input for the 2011-2013 State Plan for Independent Living (SPIL).

As part of the SILC's federal mandate, the Council listens to public testimony about issues that affect the lives of persons with disabilities in Washington and incorporates these into the SPIL.

For the 2008-2010 SPIL, goals and objectives centered around the following topics:

- Housing
- Transportation
- Transition

- Expansion of CIL network in the state

The next SPIL (2011-2013) will likely cover many of the aforementioned topics, but are open to new ideas. The SILC encourages you to attend public forums to voice your opinion on what should be included in the SPIL.

Four Public Forums were held between April 1st and 22nd :

- Tacoma: April 21st, and
- Bellingham: April 22nd.

The remaining schedule looks like this:

- May 11th: Vancouver
- May 12th: Ellensburg
- May 13th: Pasco
- May 14th: Spokane

Details are in the link provided under "remaining schedule."

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

Centers for Independent Living Receive "Stimulus" funding

As part of the historical American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) signed into law by President Obama, the five Washington Centers for Independent Living recently received their notification of ARRA Part C funding.

The five CILs will receive $269,422 each while the Redmond branch of the Alliance for People with Disabilities will receive $202,067.

The funding will be used over a two-year period and will be used for things such as:

- infrastructure upgrades
- hiring and training benefits planners
- staff and board training and development, and
- marketing and outreach, services.

In addition to the Part C ARRA funding (those funds that come directly from RSA to the CILs.), each of the CILs received Part B ARRA funding through a contract with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. This contract period runs from July 2009 and covers such activities as employee hires (Benefits Planners and Roads to Community Living Advocate) and equipment upgrades.

SILC Changes

The SILC itself has been remarkably stable in terms of its membership. The only change in membership was that Lynnae Ruttledge left WA DVR for RSA (see below).

Andrès Aguirre, the interim director of DVR, took over as the ex-officio member of the SILC.

A new slate of officers was elected at the November meeting. Romel Mackelprang (Spokane) was re-elected as the Council Chair. Jana Finkbonner (Bellingham) was elected as the Vice Chair and Sandra Carr (Spokane) was elected as member-at-large. All of them will serve their terms until the Fall 2010 Meeting.

SILC Members:

- Romel Mackelprang, Chair (Spokane)
- Jana Finkbonner, Vice Chair (Bellingham)
- Sandra Carr, At-Large Representative (Spokane)
- Linda McClain, ACIL-WA Representative (Spokane)
- Andrès Aguirre, DSU/ DVR Representative (Olympia)
- Debbie Cook, DSU/ Department Services for the Blind (Seattle)
- Al Neely (Yakima)

Lynnae Ruttledge goes to the Other “Washington”

Lynnae Ruttledge, former director of the state Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and SILC member, moved to Washington DC to become the Commissioner of Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA).

Ruttledge was nominated by President Obama last fall, confirmed by the U.S. Senate on December 24th, and officially appointed on December 30. After that bit of a whirlwind, she left our WA and arrived in DC to begin work on January 4th. She lives in the Capitol Hill area of DC and is often seen walking to work in her trademark orange jacket.

RSA is responsible for: basic state and formula grant programs in the following areas:

- independent living centers,
- service projects,
- rehabilitation training discretionary grant programs,
- Randolph-Sheppard vending facilities and
- Helen Keller National Center programs.

Since arriving in DC, Ruttledge and longtime colleagues and partners have reached out to her. She has already had several meetings with the National Council on Independent Living, the National Rehabilitation Association, and the Council of State Administrators for Vocational Rehabilitation.

“I continue to feel humbled by the opportunity to serve in this Administration. This is truly a chance of a lifetime to make a difference in the lives of individuals with disabilities and the systems that support them.” Lynnae Rutledge, RSA Commissioner
